

ICC Thailand Arbitration Dinner Talk

“Regional Economic Integration: Perspectives on its Impact on International Arbitration Practice in Asia”

Samuel Seow will be discussing developments in award enforcement in countries within this region with reference to cases his team and him are involved in. He also intend to share some perspectives on regional economic integration's effect on law firms and the practice of arbitration.

Samuel Seow is Senior Legal Counsel of SSLC and leads its arbitration practice. Admitted to practice in Singapore and Australia, Samuel has significant experience in resolving commercial disputes across a range of industries. He is featured in the 2017 edition of the Thomson Reuters Asian Legal Business “40 under 40” lawyers in Asia, primarily for his international dispute resolution experience. Samuel was previously attached to the Thai Arbitration Institute and teaches on an adjunct basis at Thammasat University and other institutions in the region.
